

Dear Sir or Madam,

I have been recently made aware of Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary a few days before the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Indeed it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

I urge you to request a balanced broadcast, including documentaries about BOTH candidates. Otherwise, only certain ideologies will be conveyed to the public at a critical election period.

Yours truly,
Charles Cange
